

Euphorbia resinifera

MOROCCAN MOUND

These rugged succulents grow to form rounded mounds comprised of numerous short, square stems. They are glaucous, gray green in color with short, silver to gray paired thorns running along their ribs. They are slow to moderate growers that require well-drained soils and limited water, especially during cool months. Their low sprawling habit makes that handsome companion for other succulents, complimentary desert shrubs, or native flowering perennials.

DESCRIPTION

 1-3 FT. HIGH X 4-5 FT. WIDE

 FULL TO PART SUN

 9-11

 NORTH AFRICA

 YELLOW

 LOW

 TO 25°F